

HORSEWHIPPED HER HUSBAND.
Mrs. James D. Cochrane Gets Justice of Miss Sarah Jacobs.

Mrs. James D. Cochrane of 28 Broome street, Greenpoint, speaking of a horsewhipping which she gave her husband on Friday night on the walk fronting Miss Sarah Jacobs's residence, 100 Nassau avenue, said:

"Six months ago I was informed that my husband was very friendly with Miss Jacobs, and that he was a constant visitor at her house. When I found out that it was so forbidding him to have anything to do with her, I told him he should have some regard for his family. He and I have been married twenty years, and we have a girl 18 years old. Mr. Cochrane has several times been a candidate in Greenpoint for Assemblyman and Supervisor. Besides thinking of his family he should have thought of his reputation. Why, Mr. Cochrane and his son are employed on one of the religious societies in New York. Well, when I found he would not give up going to see Miss Jacobs I resolved on a heroic measure. I went to the sidewalk, approached him from behind, and struck him. After he got up from my hand and ran up Nassau avenue with it, breaking it as he turned and hurried down the block, I knew he had been hit. I came to learn there was a great crowd of people about me, and that I was assisted to my house. I have not seen my husband since."

Mr. Cochrane, a young member of the Olive Tree Lodge, assisted Mrs. Cochrane to her home. He would give no account of the horsewhipping, as it was done in secret, and hurried to Miss Jacobs's house, on the stoop of which he found Mrs. Cochrane seated.

Mrs. Cochrane was found in Miss Jacobs's father's house.

"I have not seen my wife," he said, "since that night, but I am sure the man who beat her will not take it in his head to harm her again." On the contrary, the notoriety which followed it has only brought me to leave this town."

The whole town is angry, he said, from the top to the bottom. "A man is not safe in this town," he said, "and I have been a friend of mine, and as such has visited me. His wife is not a bad woman, but she does not visit our town, or even our city, and we have not seen my husband since."

Miss Jacobs's father is a brother with Mr. Cochrane in Olive Tree Lodge.

Shot Twice at a Fireman Who Was Running Before His Engine to a Fire.

Policeman James Morris of the Fifth street station was summoned yesterday to appear before the Superintendent to-day. He fired two shots at Assistant Foreman John J. Burns while Burns was running ahead of his engine on the right of the Century building fire. Morris's excuse is that he mistook Burns for a thief, and when he turned after Morris fired the shots, he saw the policeman's pistol leveled at his head.

The Superintendent will also investigate to-day the charge of J. W. Rich that Doorman McNally of the East Thirty-third street station demanded $1 from him for sending out two messages while Rich was prisoner there on the charge of being a suspicious person. The Superintendent and all have a say. Policeman Miller, a son of James Miller, who was arrested and looked up to Mr. Rich, whose humane act in taking an intoxicated farmer out of the way of thieves was justified in court, will be tried.

Policeman Farrel, Conroy, and Brunner of the East Fifty-first street station will have to answer to Assistant Foreman James Miller's accusation before Superintendent Miller. Miller says that a few evenings ago while he was sitting on his doorstep at 418 East Forty-second street he heard a noise and ran to him. Farrel put a pistol to his head and Conroy and Brunner arrested him. On the way to the station house they clubbed him, injured him, and took him to the station house, where he was in court for a year. Upon their evidence he was paid under $200 bail.
